The POWER of the PULSE

Advanced Doctor Treatment for Anterior Blepharitis*

Visit Myco Industries/AB Max™

As part of the special program during the event, when you purchase six (6) boxes of AB Max™ procedure packs, you will get the AB Max™ device for FREE.

From one of the inventors of the first doctor's treatment for blepharitis — the AB Max™ is a new Doctor's Treatment for Anterior Blepharitis* with Patented PULSE functionality specifically engineered to remove even the most tenacious debris and plaque (biofilm) while gently massaging the outer eyelid margins for a better patient experience!

This innovative product delivers a newly Patented PULSE action for more efficient and rapid outer eyelid debridement, and a more comfortable patient experience without catching or pulling long eyelashes or lash extensions out.

AB Max™ provides:

- BETTER treatment outcomes with HIGHER PROFITS
- Add $100,000 or more to your bottom line annually
- During the event - NO CAPITAL INVESTMENT required
